

Standards in Qualification, Ayurveda Products, Diagnostics and Treatment
Thursday, 23rd November 2006
Haus der Wirtschaft, Castrop Rauxel, Europaplatz 14

- | | |
|---------|--|
| 10.00h | Greeting
Thomas Vallomtharayil, Managing Director of The Ruhr Valley Medical Park , Germany |
| 10.10 h | Learning from Best Practice: Complementarity between Modern Western and Traditional Asian Medicine
Prof. Dr. med. Stefan F. Winter, Secretary of State, Ministry of Work, Health and Social Affairs, Government of North Rhine-Westphalia |
| 10.25 h | Potential for Indo-German Cooperation in Health Care Economy
Honourable Consul General Mr. Ashok Kumar of the Consulate General of India, Frankfurt am Main |
| 10.40 h | Status of Traditional Indian Medicine in Kerala, India, and Measures of Quality Management
Dr. Vishwas Mehta, Secretary of State, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of Kerala |
| 11.00 h | Press meeting |
| 11.30 h | Tea break |
| 11.45 h | The Present Situation of the German Ayurveda Market
Thomas Vallomtharayil, Managing Director of The Ruhr Valley Medical Park , Germany |
| 12.15 h | Standardisation in Qualification, Procedures and Products for Ayurvedic Treatment in India
Prof. Dr. M. C. Sharma, Director of National Institute of Ayurveda, Jaipur, (AYUSH), Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India,. |
| 12.45 h | Lunch break |
| 14:00 h | Chances and Risks of Ayurveda treatment methods, Medicine and Herbs
Prof. Ajay Kumar Sharma, National Institute of Ayurveda, Jaipur. |

